2016-17 Volunteer Options

Given the seasonal nature of our Impact year, you must volunteer by December in order to serve on a committee.

Communications/Technology Committee: If you have Facebook and other social media skills, writing experience, know your way around a camera, liaise with the media, understand print production or work on websites, then the Communications Committee may be for you. Meetings are limited with most of the work done by email or at Impact 100 events. Contact Beth Howard, Chair, ehh1@mac.com or 910-398-3632.

Finance Committee: If you have a financial background or expertise, then the Finance Committee would appreciate your assistance. You will support the Grants Committee panels by reviewing the financial documents included with grant applications. Time commitment: January-February. Contact: Denise Battaglini, Chair, denise.battaglini02@gmail.com or 772-643-3101.

Grants Committee: If you like reviewing grant applications, making site visits, and recommending awardees, then the Grants Committee may be for you. You will gain increased awareness of community needs and appreciation for the work of the nonprofits striving to meet those needs. Time commitment: January-February. Wanda Lincoln, Chair, wlincoln@aol.com or 772-231-3394.

Events Committee: If you like event planning and detail, the Events Committee, which is responsible for the planning and execution of the November Kickoff Breakfast and Annual Meeting in April, needs your assistance. Meetings are limited with most of the activity occurring around the events. Contact Baerbel O'Haire, Chair, baerbel.ohaire@ml.com or 772-559-2936.

Membership Committee: If you like to help with recruiting new members and retaining current members, corresponding with new and former members, and mentoring new members, then the Membership Committee may be for you. Meetings are limited with most of the work done by email or at events. Contact Laura McDermott, Chair, lmgcdermott@gmail.com or 772-321-6492.

Other Talents: If you have office skills, or a knack for technology, please contact Laura McDermott and she will find the right spot for you. Time commitment as needed.

All of Impact 100's current Board members have volunteered on one or more committees, so if you are interested in a potential Board position, please volunteer!
